

Antarctica Direct: Sail and Fly the Drake Passage

January 26 - February 4, 2027
Aboard National Geographic Explorer

SPECIAL AFFINITY GROUP SAVINGS OFFER

Dear Travelers,

Venturing to Antarctica is an expedition like no other—a chance to explore wonderlands of sculpted snow and ice where whales swim, penguins flock and albatross soar. It's a true journey of a lifetime that has historically called for multiple weeks of travel, including a round-trip sea crossing of the Drake Passage.

I am excited to share a more time-efficient way to discover the wonders of the White Continent without sacrificing any of the adventure: a 10-day itinerary with National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions. Their sail and fly expedition allows you to cruise the Drake Passage one way, and in the other direction, bypass it with a 2-hour flight, so you may discover all of the highlights without sacrificing the extra time.

Each day on the seventh continent is filled with new sights and sounds. Greet the southernmost sky with a sunrise stretch session, paddle a kayak past tabular icebergs the size of islands and walk among charismatic penguins. You'll even have the rare opportunity to peer deep into polar waters from the comfort and safety of the ship via a remotely operated vehicle (ROV). A veteran team of naturalists will be on hand to provide expert perspectives, and a National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions certified photo instructor can help you capture incredible images.

Our tour operator for this program, Lindblad Expeditions, has been traveling to Antarctica for 60 years and has unmatched expertise in the region. They are uniquely skilled at bringing you directly into the heart of this icy region. Their polar captains all hold the "icemaster" distinction and have collectively navigated more than 600 expeditions in these icy waters, while the crew's deep knowledge of the Antarctic peninsula allows them to make the most of nature's opportunities. For travelers, this expertise translates to adventure-filled days and amazing wildlife sightings—experiences befit for the trip of a lifetime.

To reserve your place, please complete the reservation form, email groups@expeditions.com, or call 833-985-1261.

Warm regards,

David Webb

WITNESS THE WONDER OF THE WHITE CONTINENT

Dazzling Beauty on a Grand Scale

The White Continent launches you into a unique world of marine wildlife, frozen landscapes and incredible geological formations. Spot ethereal albatross and other giant pelagic birds that glide and flit around us as we sail through the legendary Drake Passage. Watch for the telltale spout of orcas and acrobatic pods of leaping dolphins off the deck. Approaching the Antarctic islands, we float into an ice desert of crystalline air and frozen seas. Staggering in its variety of forms, the visual beauty of polar ice makes every Antarctic explorer vow to return.

Kayak and hike among Antarctica's most riveting, and often raucous, denizens: the Adélie, chinstrap and gentoo penguins. Whether courting, squabbling or fetching krill, their fascinating antics and adaptations to life on the ice are at once amusing and awe-inspiring. Zodiac cruise in search of leopard seals hauled out on the sea ice, then watch for the big dark eyes of Weddell seals popping their heads above the water. And explore lesser-known terrain. While the White Continent is famous for its snow, glaciers and icebergs, its rockier volcanic past is revealed at places like Edinburgh Hill, where columnar basalt juts out of the sea, and at the black-sand beaches of a submerged caldera called Deception Island.

Life on Board

When sailing on National Geographic Explorer, your time on board is as rewarding as your time on shore. Every detail—from the culinary delights to the soothing spa treatments sourced from our surroundings—is inspired by the beauty all around you. Watch orcas from the ship's bow in the icy air, then warm up in the chart room with a cup of hot cocoa. Or perch high atop the ship in the sun-drenched observation lounge, where you can fly over the polar scenery as it unfolds below. With a well-stocked library at arm's reach, you can read up on a comprehensive range of topics, from Shackleton's historic expedition to the migratory patterns of humpback whales.

THE QUINTESSENTIAL EXPEDITION SHIP

National Geographic Explorer is an ice-class expedition ship that truly lives up to her name. She embodies the expertise that Lindblad Expeditions has developed throughout 60 years of exploring Antarctica. This powerful yet intimately scaled vessel brings you directly, and safely, into the heart of this icy wilderness and allows you to experience it in unique and immersive ways. Her bow's low profile gives you an exhilarating vantage point, making you feel as though you're suspended over the glassy water. And you're always welcome to talk to the captain and officers on the Bridge, where you can learn the ins and outs of navigation or take a turn at the spotting scope.

Purpose-Built for Polar Exploration

- DNV ICE-1A class rating on the hull, enabling us to navigate the ice safely
- Remotely Operated Vehicle (ROV) that can explore the ocean at depths up to 1,000 feet
- Crow's nest remote-controlled camera with real-time footage broadcast on high-definition LCD video screens within each cabin
- Electronic chart system that broadcasts as a channel in the cabins
- Chart room with nautical maps and a coffee, tea and hot cocoa station
- The Bridge where you're always welcome with an open invitation from the ship's captain
- Observation lounge providing panoramic vistas of the scenery and a supply of binoculars
- Large fleet of Zodiacs and internal mechanism for swift, effortless boarding
- 36 double kayaks that allow personal exploring in pristine Antarctic environments

Opposite (clockwise from top): National Geographic Explorer is designed with the utmost attention to safety and comfort; guests review nautical maps on the Bridge; Gulf Almirante Montt, Puerto Natales, Patagonia, Chile; kayaks allow for personal exploration. Above: Guests join officers on the Bridge to watch them navigate the ice.

EXPERIENCE AUTHENTIC EXPLORATION

Travel with a Veteran Team

Every staff member—from our naturalists and expedition leaders to our crew working behind the scenes—is committed to ensuring guests have an unforgettable experience. Many are veteran polar guides who have worked with us for decades, chosen for their extensive knowledge of subjects like geology, wildlife biology and climate science. They, along with the guest speakers who join us on board, give rich context to the wildlife and landscapes we encounter ashore.

The expedition staff helps guests board kayaks safely and swiftly.

Take Great Photos with the Pros

Actively Explore Every Day

Our Antarctic voyages feature a range of activities designed to immerse you in the wilds of the White Continent. Head to the bow to watch for whale fins and flukes, paddle a kayak past a glittering iceberg or hike up a hillside for otherworldly views of the massive ice sheets. Zodiacs can zip you to the shore, where you can watch the adorable antics of fluffy Adélie and gentoo penguin chicks testing the waters and exercising their wings. Or join one of our polar experts in search of leopard seals among the brash ice. On board, learn more about the Heroic Age of Antarctic exploration from our historian, identify live birds next to expert birders or join your photo instructor at the deck rail for landscape photography tips. Each day opens new exploration options you can enjoy at your own pace.

In-Depth Undersea Program

As part of our in-depth undersea program, an undersea specialist uses a high-definition video camera and deploys a remotely operated vehicle (ROV) that allows us to peer through steely polar waters—up to 1,000 feet beneath the surface. Footage is shared during Daily Recaps, inviting guests to witness surprising and unexpectedly colorful sea life from the comfort and safety of our ship.

Itinerary

Crossing the Drake Passage is an explorer's milestone for many, but it can add several days to your travels. On this itinerary, experience the best of both worlds as you take a two-hour flight from Puerto Natales to Antarctica, and then return via ship, saving time without sacrificing any of the adventure. Travel with a diverse team of experts aboard National Geographic Explorer. Venture into channels and coves framed by towering peaks. Watch for whales off the bow; Zodiac cruise around enormous icebergs; and hike and kayak in complete tranquility. Choose an active agenda or surrender to the pleasures of relaxing downtime and shipboard camaraderie. Plus, get top shots with the help of a professional photographer.

DAY 1: PUERTO NATALES, CHILE

Arrive in Puerto Natales. Originally a small fishing port, the town is nestled on the Last Hope Sound and boasts a stunning view of the sea surrounded by the Cerro Benitez Mountains—the gateway to Torres del Paine. Transfer from the airport to your hotel, where you'll enjoy dinner and attend a briefing on the following day's activities. (D)

DAY 2: PUERTO NATALES / KING GEORGE ISLAND, ANTARCTICA / EMBARK SHIP

Following breakfast, check out of the hotel and transfer to the airport for your two-hour direct flight to King George Island in Antarctica, where you'll begin your Antarctic adventure. Home to a diverse assortment of wildlife, King George Island also has a human presence. Researchers from a wide range of countries, including the U.S., Chile, Argentina and Brazil, call the various stations home. Your flight will land on a gravel runway at the Chilean research station. You will then be transferred to the rocky shoreline, where you will board Zodiacs to embark on the ship and set sail as you begin exploring this amazing region. (B,L,D)

DAYS 3-6: EXPLORING ANTARCTICA

With long hours of daylight at this time of year, you'll have ample opportunities to explore. The schedule is flexible, allowing you to take advantage of the unexpected, whether you're watching whales at play off the bow of the ship, hiking alongside penguin highways or enjoying an evening Zodiac cruise amid porpoising penguins. While wildlife is magnificent, ice defines the Antarctic. You'll get to know ice up close and personal—from icebergs the size of islands, bergy bits and near-vertical glaciers, to the fragile, nearly invisible layers that have just begun to freeze. One day, you might set out by kayak to encounter towering icebergs at water level; embark on a Zodiac excursion in search of seals and blue-eyed shags; or walk amid thousands of Adélie and gentoo penguins. The next, you might experience the thrill of the ship crunching through pack ice. Everywhere you go in Antarctica, you'll be surrounded by opportunities to capture uniquely beautiful images. Along the way your expert expedition team will enrich every experience. (B,L,D)

DAYS 7-8: AT SEA / CROSSING THE DRAKE PASSAGE

This 500-mile-wide strait between the Antarctic Peninsula and South America is one of the most famous bodies of water in the world. Sometimes ferocious, sometimes flat calm, the Drake is always a fascinating place in its own right. This part of the journey is your best opportunity to see gorgeous seabirds like the wandering albatross, and you might be lucky enough to encounter orca whales or rare species of dolphins. Visit the Bridge (a great place to spot wildlife), have a relaxing massage, attend a talk about the biology of the penguins you've just seen or settle into a comfy chair in the observation lounge to look out over the waves and reflect on your incredible journey. Toast your epic voyage at a festive farewell dinner. (B,L,D)

DAY 9: USHUAIA, ARGENTINA / DISEMBARK SHIP

Arrive in Ushuaia. Sandwiched between ice-mantled peaks and the frigid waters of the Beagle Channel, this is a fittingly wild place to be known as "El Fin del Mundo" or "The End of the World." Transfer to your hotel. In the evening, enjoy dinner. (B,L,D)

DAY 10: USHUAIA

Check out of your hotel and transfer to the airport to begin your journey homeward. (B)

Please note: Timing of flights to/from King George Island are weather dependent. Refer to www.expeditions.com/landing/fly-the-drake-faq for more details.

Valid on this departure date of Antarctica Direct: Sail and Fly the Drake Passage. For new bookings only, subject to availability, may not be combined with other offers and is not applicable on airfare or extensions. Call for details. Please note: the 5% savings is not applicable to the included charter airfare cost of $1,500.

BRINGING THE KIDS: Sharing the expedition with your kids or grandkids is a life-enhancing experience. Take $500 off the double-occupancy price for each person under the age of 18 at the time of travel. Not applicable on extensions or airfare.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Prices quoted in this brochure are per person based on double occupancy in USD. Prices quoted are valid at the time of printing, and are subject to change and availability at time of booking. Under normal conditions the total expedition price is guaranteed at the time advanced payment is made. However, our expedition pricing is determined far in advance of initial departure on the basis of then-existing projections of fuel and other costs. In the event of increases in those costs, including but not limited to increases in the price of fuel, currency fluctuations, increases in government taxes or levies or increased security costs, we reserve the right to adjust the price of your expedition or add a surcharge to cover such unexpected increases. We will always provide an explanation of the reason for increase in costs.

COST INCLUDES: All amenities listed in inclusive pricing above. Unused services or items included in this program are non-refundable.

NOT INCLUDED: International airfare; additional hotel nights unless otherwise noted; pre- and post- extensions if available; private transfers; travel protection plan; passport, visa and immigration fees; items of a personal nature, such as laundry, spa treatments, certain premium wines and liquors and Wi-Fi and phone services. For select voyages, completing a medical evaluation form with VIKAND is required. If you utilize your physician, VIKAND's processing fee for your documentation will be added to your National Geographic-Lindblad Expeditions invoice. If you utilize VIKAND's physicians, an additional charge will be due and payable directly to VIKAND.

AIRFARE: The charter flight from King George Island to Puerto Natales, Chile is included. International airfare is an additional cost. Lindblad will assist in making your air arrangements for a $50 per person service fee. Due to the unpredictable weather in Antarctica, we highly encourage guests to book their international flights through Lindblad Expeditions' air department, who can assist with rescheduling flights if needed.

RESERVATIONS: To confirm your place, an advance payment of 15% of the cabin fare, per person is payable by Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover or check. Receipt of advance payment indicates your acceptance of the terms and conditions.

FINAL PAYMENT: Due 120 days prior to departure. Lindblad Expeditions reserves the right to cancel your reservation if payment has not been received by final payment due date.
